Points to Ponder

• Consider the account of Genesis 34. Given the complete truth of God's word in the Bible (Old and New Testaments), were the actions of Simeon and Levi acceptable in God's eyes?

• Joseph's brothers' actions toward him were wrong. But, what preceding problem motivated their actions? What do we learn from this and how does it apply to our lives? Consider your answer with respect to Galatians 2:6.

• Why would God chose a man like Moses to deliver Israel from Egypt?
